Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Norman Joel Hagen and Noble Clarence Hagen have devoted their lifes to the betterment of their communities, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Norman and Noble Hagen have reached their 80th birthdays, an occasion of joy and celebration; and,

WHEREAS, Norman and Noble have given much to South Dakota during their lifetimes and it is fitting that we honor Norman and Noble on this momentous occasion; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Norman and Noble Hagen's years as productive and outstanding citizens of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 20, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join their many friends and relatives in wishing both Norman and Noble very happy birthdays and many more years of health and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
